DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 10/5/2004; 6/14/2004 and 3/16/2004 has been considered by the examiner.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art teaches the use of cameras that communicate over radio communications systems to remote devices such as computers. Furthermore, the prior art teaches the use of cameras having image sensors and memory. The prior art further teaches the use of camera system that transmit authorization information from a camera to enable camera authorization. However, the prior art does not teach a system in which an authorization part of the camera authorizes the camera user by collating information read over the communications channel with camera user information read from the memory of the camera wherein the recording part related to the camera user authorized at the authorization part while connecting the information related to the camera user with image data captured by the camera. Therefore, the claims are allowed over the prior art.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. USPN 6,628,325 Steinberg et al teaches the use of a camera system that can communicate wirelessly and performs user authorization function; USPN 6,567,122 Anderson et al teaches the use of a camera operating over the internet; USPN 6,930,709 Creamer et al teaches the use of a camera that can communicate data wirelessly.

Art Unit: 2622

This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: Camera system for communicating information related to user authorization and image data over a radio communications system.

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The applicant is advised to update the Specification on Page 1, Line 5 to indicate the allowance of case number 09/604,352.

Appropriate correction is required.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213, (Comm'r Pat. 1935).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
